August is ‘Make a Will’ Month

Houston SPCA Will Host Professional Seminar on Estate Planning for Your Beloved Pets

(HOUSTON) August 3, 2023 – Do you ever think about who will care for your pet if you suddenly were no longer able to? Just like planning for a child, parents or grandparents, responsible pet owners should have a Plan B for their beloved pets.

Questions such as “whom should you name as a pet’s guardian? For how long and what will the quality of care look like?” are only a few questions that will be addressed at Houston SPCA’s upcoming seminar: “Estate Planning and Your Pets”

John Strohmeyer, a tax and estate law Houston attorney and a good friend of the Houston SPCA, will lead a conversation regarding this topic. John is an accomplished estate planning lawyer with professional insights and experience who will guide you through the maze of often complex estate law and answer questions specific to planning for yourself and your pets.

You are invited to this FREE seminar at our William & Evelyn Griffin Campus for All Animals.
