Houston SPCA Will Temporarily Adjust Adoption Center Hours Due to COVID Surge

New Hours Will Go into Effect on Sunday, January 2

HOUSTON (December 30, 2021) – The Houston SPCA will temporarily change their Adoption Center hours beginning Sunday, January 2 due to the recent surge of COVID cases in the greater Houston area.

The Houston SPCA Adoption Center will be open daily from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. with limited occupancy starting on January 2. There will be up to 15 individual groups of visitors allowed into the Center at a time, for a maximum of one hour. Doors will open to welcome new visitors at the top of each hour including 1 p.m., 2 p.m., 3 p.m., 4 p.m. and 5 p.m.

The Houston SPCA encourages all potential adopters to view the vast array of available pets online before visiting their Adoption Center at www.houstonspca.org. All campus visitors will need to wear a mask and social distancing is encouraged.

The Houston SPCA, including the Wildlife Center of Texas, will be closed to the public on New Year's Day. For more information, please visit www. HoustonSPCA.org
