Houston SPCA Named Best Houston Nonprofit

The Gulf Coast Region's Most Comprehensive Animal Rescue and Protection Organization Voted as 'Best of the Best' in Nonprofit Category

HOUSTON (July 21, 2023) – The Houston SPCA was named Houston's *Best of the Best Nonprofit* at an awards ceremony on Thursday evening at the Royal Sonesta Hotel. The animal protection organization earned the top spot after a nomination in mid-April, followed by several online voting rounds that was open to the public.

The Houston Chronicle's Best of the Best 2023 categories included Nonprofit, Beauty, Eat and Drink, Entertainment and Leisure; Health and Fitness; Home Services and Finance; Kids and Education; Legal as well as Retail and Services.

The Houston SPCA has been serving the greater Houston area and beyond for the past 99 years and today is one of the country's leading animal rescue and protection organization with more than a dozen programs and services including their 10-member, full-time animal cruelty investigations team serving nine counties; a 24-hour injured animal ambulance and the Houston SPCA's Wildlife Center of Texas, one of the largest wildlife rehabilitation centers in the nation that cares for more than 12,000 wild animals annually.

The Houston SPCA's mission is to improve and protect the lives of animals in our community and alleviate their suffering and abuse. Relying solely on donations, there are more than a dozen ways to support the 501(c)(3) including fostering, volunteering and monthly giving. Learn many more ways here.
